PMA 159 Long Course — Initial Test Solved Academic Experience

Prepared by Pro Genius Forces Academy

- This file has been prepared using the test experiences shared by candidates who appeared in the PMA 159 Long Course initial tests.
- Some questions have been completed or clarified using previously shared records because candidates may provide incomplete or unclear statements. For Mathematics, please focus on the topic, as the exact question may not have been recalled correctly.

- If you find any incorrect answer or mistake, please verify it through Google or another reliable search engine. You can also discuss it in your discussion group or contact us at 03334694332 to report corrections.
- Have you taken your initial test? Share your complete test experience with us at 03334694332. Just as this file has helped you, your experience can help future aspirants prepare better. Please make sure to share your experience so we can continue guiding upcoming candidates.
- We will keep sharing new test experiences and updates over the weekends.

Thank you for being part of the Pro Genius Forces Academy community!

Pro Genius Forces Academy
Sir Waqas Asghar

Q1. In which year did Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah present his Fourteen Points?

Answer: 1929.

Explanation: Quaid-e-Azam presented his Fourteen Points in March 1929 in response to the Nehru Report of 1928. These points outlined constitutional safeguards for Muslims in British India.

Q2. Where is the headquarters of the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation (SCO) located?

Answer: Beijing, China.

Explanation: The SCO Secretariat is located in Beijing, China. The organisation was established in 2001 to promote regional cooperation among its member states.

Q3. Who was the first Chief Justice of Pakistan?

Answer: Sir Abdul Rashid.

Explanation: Sir Abdul Rashid became Pakistan's first Chief Justice in 1947. He served in this position until 1954.

Q4. What is the approximate coastline length of Pakistan?

Answer: Approximately 1,046 km.

Explanation: Pakistan's coastline extends along the Arabian Sea through Sindh and Balochistan. Published estimates can vary depending on the measurement method.

Q5. Who is the Deputy Prime Minister of Pakistan as of October 2026?

Answer: Senator Mohammad Ishaq Dar.

Explanation: Ishaq Dar serves as Pakistan's Deputy Prime Minister and Foreign Minister. Government appointments should be checked against the latest official records before publication.

Q6. In which direction is Afghanistan located relative to Pakistan?

Answer: Northwest.

Explanation: Afghanistan lies mainly to the northwest of Pakistan and shares a long international border with it, commonly known as the Durand Line.

Explanation: Afghanistan lies mainly to the northwest of Pakistan and shares a long international border with it, commonly known as the Durand Line.

Q7. In which year did the Kargil War take place?

Answer: 1999.

Explanation: The Kargil conflict took place between India and Pakistan in the summer of 1999 in the Kargil sector of the disputed Kashmir region.

Q8. In which year did East Pakistan become Bangladesh?

Answer: 1971.

Explanation: East Pakistan became the independent state of Bangladesh in December 1971 following a war involving Pakistan, Bengali independence forces and India.

Q9. In which year did Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah join the All-India Muslim League?

Answer: 1913.

Explanation: Jinnah joined the All-India Muslim League in 1913. He had joined the Indian National Congress earlier, in 1906.

Q10. What is the capital of Saudi Arabia?

Answer: Riyadh.

Explanation: Riyadh is the capital and largest city of Saudi Arabia. It is an important political, administrative and economic centre.

Q11. What is the official currency of Saudi Arabia?

Answer: Saudi Riyal (SAR).

Explanation: The Saudi riyal is the official currency of Saudi Arabia. One riyal is divided into 100 halalas.

Q12. Where is the headquarters of the United Nations located?

Answer: New York City, United States.

Explanation: The UN headquarters is located in Manhattan, New York City. The United Nations was established in 1945 to promote international peace, security and cooperation.

Q13. Which mountain pass connects Pakistan with Afghanistan in the Khyber region?

Answer: Khyber Pass.

Explanation: The Khyber Pass connects northwestern Pakistan with Afghanistan. Historically, it has served as an important route for trade, travel and military movements.

Q14. At what price did Pakistan purchase Gwadar from Oman?

Answer: Approximately £3 million.

Explanation: Pakistan purchased Gwadar from Oman in 1958. The port later became strategically important because of its location on the Arabian Sea.

Q15. Who was the first Governor-General of Pakistan?

Answer: Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah.

Explanation: Muhammad Ali Jinnah became Pakistan's first Governor-General on 14 August 1947. He held the office until his death in September 1948.

Q16. Who was Pakistan's first Foreign Minister?

Answer: Sir Muhammad Zafarullah Khan.

Explanation: Sir Muhammad Zafarullah Khan was Pakistan's first Foreign Minister after independence in 1947. He later served as President of the International Court of Justice.

Q17. Under which constitutional amendment was the post of Chief of Defence Forces (CDF) created in Pakistan?

Answer: The 27th Constitutional Amendment, 2025.

Explanation: The amendment changed Article 243 of Pakistan's Constitution and restructured the higher defence command system.

Q18. Which Surah is the last Surah of the Holy Quran?

Answer: Surah An-Nas.

Explanation: Surah An-Nas is the 114th and final chapter of the Quran. It contains six verses and teaches believers to seek Allah's protection from evil whispers.

Answer: Surah An-Nas.

Explanation: Surah An-Nas is the 114th and final chapter of the Quran. It contains six verses and teaches believers to seek Allah's protection from evil whispers.

Q19. Which Prophet is known by the title "Ruhullah"?

Answer: Prophet Isa (A.S.).

Explanation: Ruhullah is an honorific title associated with Prophet Isa (A.S.) in Islamic tradition. Muslims believe that he was born miraculously by Allah's command.

Q20. Who was the father of Prophet Ibrahim (A.S.) according to the Quranic account commonly taught in Islamic Studies?

Answer: Azar.

Explanation: Surah Al-An'am (6:74) mentions Azar in connection with Prophet Ibrahim (A.S.) and his rejection of idol worship. Classical scholars have discussed the precise relationship described in this verse.

Q21. Which Prophet was known as Israel?

Answer: Prophet Yaqub (A.S.).

Explanation: Israel is traditionally identified with Prophet Yaqub (A.S.). His descendants are known as the Children of Israel in Islamic tradition.

Q22. In which Hijri year was Hajj made obligatory for Muslims?

Answer: 9 AH.

Explanation: Hajj is one of the five pillars of Islam and is obligatory once in a lifetime for Muslims who meet the required physical and financial conditions. The commonly taught answer for the year of obligation is 9 AH.

Q23. Who was the first Muslim martyr in Islam?

Answer: Hazrat Sumayyah bint Khayyat (R.A.).

Explanation: Hazrat Sumayyah (R.A.) was among the earliest Muslims persecuted in Makkah. She is widely recognised in Islamic history as the first martyr of Islam.

Q24. What is the eccentricity of a parabola?

Answer: e = 1.

Explanation: Eccentricity describes the shape of a conic section. A parabola has an eccentricity exactly equal to 1.

Q25. Who holds the record for the most wickets in men's Test cricket?

Answer: Muttiah Muralitharan — 800 wickets.

Explanation: The Sri Lankan spin bowler retired from Test cricket with 800 wickets, the highest total in the format's history.

Q26. Jahangir Khan is famous for which sport?

Answer: Squash.

Explanation: Jahangir Khan is a legendary Pakistani squash player. He is particularly famous for his record-breaking unbeaten run of 555 consecutive matches.

Q27. What is a synonym of "turbulent"?

Answer: Stormy.

Explanation: "Turbulent" describes something marked by disorder, instability or violent movement. "Stormy" is an appropriate synonym when describing rough weather.

Q28. Which article of the Constitution of Pakistan, 1973, was mentioned in the test?

Answer: The exact article cannot be determined from the available information.

Explanation: The Constitution contains numerous articles covering fundamental rights, government institutions and other subjects. The original question or its topic is required to identify the correct article.

Q29. Evaluate the integral reported in the test: "Integral of 2x x square plus c."

Answer: The exact expression is unclear.

Explanation: The answer depends on the intended mathematical expression and the placement of any powers, fractions or brackets. The original expression is needed to calculate the correct integral.

Q30. What is the antonym of "wild"?

Answer: Tame.

Explanation: "Wild" describes an animal that is not domesticated, whereas "tame" describes an animal that has been trained to live peacefully with humans.

Q31. What is the antonym of "gracious"?

Answer: Rude.

Explanation: "Gracious" means courteous, kind and pleasant in behaviour. "Rude" describes someone who behaves impolitely or shows a lack of consideration for others.

Q32. How many months of the year have 31 days?

Answer: 7 months.

Explanation: January, March, May, July, August, October and December each have 31 days.

Q33. Who wrote the book Jinnah of Pakistan?

Answer: Stanley Wolpert.

Explanation: Stanley Wolpert was an American historian and author. His book Jinnah of Pakistan is a biography of Muhammad Ali Jinnah, the founder of Pakistan.

Q34. Where is Masjid an-Nabawi located?

Answer: Madinah, Saudi Arabia.

Explanation: Masjid an-Nabawi was established by Prophet Muhammad ﷺ after his migration to Madinah. It is one of the holiest mosques in Islam.

Q35. In which year did Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah present his Fourteen Points?

Answer: 1929.

Explanation: Jinnah presented his Fourteen Points in response to the Nehru Report of 1928. They outlined constitutional safeguards for Muslims in British India.

Q36. In which year did the Chauri Chaura incident take place?

Answer: 1922.

Explanation: The Chauri Chaura incident occurred on 4 February 1922 in British India. Following the violent incident, Mahatma Gandhi suspended the Non-Cooperation Movement.

Q37. In which year were Pakistan's first general elections held on the basis of adult franchise?

Answer: 1970.

Explanation: Pakistan held its first general elections based on adult franchise in December 1970. The Awami League won a majority of seats in the National Assembly.

Q38. Which article of the Constitution of Pakistan guarantees the right to education?

Answer: Article 25-A.

Explanation: Article 25-A makes it the state's responsibility to provide free and compulsory education to children aged 5–16 years, in the manner determined by law.

Q39. How old was Prophet Muhammad ﷺ when his grandfather, Abdul Muttalib, passed away?

Answer: Approximately 8 years old.

Explanation: Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was born around 570 CE. His grandfather, Abdul Muttalib, took care of him after his mother's death and passed away when Muhammad ﷺ was approximately eight years old.

Q40. How old was Prophet Muhammad ﷺ when he migrated from Makkah to Madinah?

Answer: Approximately 53 years old.

Explanation: The Hijrah took place in 622 CE. Prophet Muhammad ﷺ was approximately 53 years old at the time of his migration to Madinah.

Q41. Hazrat Abu Bakr (R.A.) was the father of which wife of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ?

Answer: Hazrat Ayesha (R.A.).

Explanation: Hazrat Ayesha (R.A.) was the daughter of Hazrat Abu Bakr (R.A.), the first Caliph of Islam. She became one of the most important transmitters of Hadith and Islamic knowledge.

Q42. Who was the first woman martyr in Islam?

Answer: Hazrat Sumayyah bint Khayyat (R.A.).

Explanation: Hazrat Sumayyah (R.A.) was among the earliest Muslims persecuted in Makkah. She is widely recognised as the first martyr in Islamic history.

Q43. How many faces does a triangular prism have?

Answer: 5 faces.

Explanation: A triangular prism has two triangular faces and three rectangular faces. Therefore, it has five faces in total.

Q44. The China–Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) is a joint project between which two countries?

Answer: Pakistan and China.

Explanation: CPEC is an economic development initiative connecting Pakistan's Gwadar Port with China's Xinjiang region through transport, energy and infrastructure projects.

Q45. What is another name for the Karakoram Highway?

Answer: China–Pakistan Friendship Highway.

Explanation: The Karakoram Highway connects Pakistan with China through the mountainous Karakoram region. It is an important route for trade, travel and bilateral connectivity.

Q46. Which two countries are connected by Khunjerab Pass?

Answer: Pakistan and China.

Explanation: Khunjerab Pass lies in the Karakoram Mountains along the Pakistan–China border. It is the highest paved international border crossing in the world.

Q47. How many Nobel Prizes have been awarded to Pakistani individuals?

Answer: 2.

Explanation: Two Pakistani individuals have received Nobel Prizes: Abdus Salam, who won the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1979, and Malala Yousafzai, who received the Nobel Peace Prize in 2014.

Q48. Who holds the record for the most wickets in men's Test cricket?

Answer: Muttiah Muralitharan — 800 wickets.

Explanation: The Sri Lankan spin bowler retired with 800 Test wickets, the highest total in the history of men's Test cricket.

Q49. Hafeez Kardar was a famous player of which sport?

Answer: Cricket.

Explanation: Abdul Hafeez Kardar was a prominent Pakistani cricketer and the country's first Test captain after independence. He played a major role in establishing Pakistan in international Test cricket.

Q50. In which year was the Lucknow Pact signed?

Answer: 1916.

Explanation: The Lucknow Pact was an agreement between the Indian National Congress and the All-India Muslim League in December 1916. It established a framework for constitutional reforms and cooperation between the two organisations.

Q51. Which is the highest plateau in Balochistan?

Answer: Kalat Plateau.

Explanation: The Kalat region is an elevated area in central Balochistan. Plateau-related questions can sometimes use different geographical classifications, so the exact wording of the original test question matters.

Q52. What was the former name of Karachi?

Answer: Kolachi.

Explanation: Karachi developed from a small fishing settlement traditionally associated with the name Kolachi. The settlement later grew into a major port city and Pakistan's largest city.

Q53. What is the currency of Sri Lanka?

Answer: Sri Lankan Rupee (LKR).

Explanation: The Sri Lankan rupee is the official currency of Sri Lanka. It is subdivided into 100 cents.

Q54. What is the capital of Hungary?

Answer: Budapest.

Explanation: Budapest is the capital and largest city of Hungary. It was formed through the unification of Buda, Óbuda and Pest in 1873.

Q55. What does the word 'Pakistan' mean?

Answer: Land of the Pure.

Explanation: The name Pakistan is commonly interpreted as "Land of the Pure." It is associated with the Persian and Urdu word pak, meaning pure, and the suffix -stan, meaning land or place.

Q56. Where is the Dasht River located?

Answer: Balochistan, Pakistan.

Explanation: The Dasht River is located in southwestern Balochistan and flows through the region towards the Arabian Sea. It is associated with the Gwadar and Kech areas.

Q57. Who is the current Chief Minister of Sindh as of October 2026?

Answer: Syed Murad Ali Shah.

Explanation: Syed Murad Ali Shah is serving as Chief Minister of Sindh. He is a member of the Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) and has a background in engineering and public administration.

Q58. Which country is the world's largest crude oil producer?

Answer: United States of America (USA).

Explanation: The United States remained the world's largest crude oil producer in 2025, averaging approximately 13.6 million barrels per day. The answer may differ if the original question refers specifically to oil exports or Pakistan's oil imports.